I want to be a suicide bomber because do I hear 21, 21, 21? I want to be a suicide bomber because I want the one I can't love love me do. I want to be a suicide bomber because please master can I touch your cheek. I want to be a suicide bomber because we cannot create a situation that goes beyond the point of no return. I want to be a suicide bomber because I never myself, in despair to will to be rid of oneself, is the formula of all despair. I want to be a suicide bomber because more than nine-tenths of all literate men and women read nothing but newspapers. I want to be a suicide bomber because the logic of the unrepresentable can only be sustained by a hyperbole that ends up destroying it. I want to be a suicide bomber because everybody wants to be a fascist. I want to be a suicide bomber because one of the first signs of the beginning of understanding is the wish to die. I want to be a suicide bomber because love is the best, most insidious, most effective instrument of social repression. I want to be a suicide bomber because the body separates itself from thought, the individual breaks the boundary of his skin and occupies the other side of his senses. He tries to look at himself from any point whatever in space. He feels himself becoming space, dark space where things cannot be put. I want to be a suicide bomber because Hollywood thinks it can make a film out of everything, even Marquis De Sade, Franz Kafka or even German Nazism. I want to be a suicide bomber because you go stabbing yourself in the neck. I want to be a suicide bomber because what is tragic in this tale is that my desire must be eradicated within myself. I want to be a suicide bomber because how German is it? I want to be a suicide bomber because the ready-to-hand is always understood in terms of the totality of involvements. Can you picture who Hitler is in the world? I don't think so. He's always good for a laugh. So I want to be a suicide bomber because animals are noisy in the world. I want to be a suicide bomber before you run away from me, before you're lost between the notes. I want to be a suicide bomber because right-wing women are sexier than left-wing ones. I want to be a suicide bomber because psychoanalysis is about what two people can say to each other if they agree not to have sex. I want to be a suicide bomber because we become less than the Germans, less than, worse than, Nazis, a more destructive power. I want to be a suicide bomber because artists are the monks of the bourgeois state. I want to be a suicide bomber because William it was really nothing. Dear Future,

I am dead.

This Picture was in an art show.

My times were scary. They had blunt tools and everyone was lazy. We lived in a field.

We were/are children embedded in a complex network of relations.

Our mannequins had nipples. Something you might not know is my Parents (ordinary bones)

They used to love looking out their kitchen window at planes taking off.

But enough of the past.

I hope you like our costumes.
more importantly

I hope I hope I hope I fit into the bins of your era.

Signed,

William Shakespeare
